An EPITAPH,

Which may probably be inscribed to the detested Memory of a Native of this Province, about the Beginning of the next Century.

UNDERNEATH this Tuft of Grass,
Lies a Corpse, perhaps of Brass;
Which, whilst it breath'd, plagu'd all Mankind,
Tho' but a Phantom, without Mind.——
Through all the States of Life, review it;
As Husband, Father, Subject, shew it:
If such a bad Man can be found,
Then TIME to DEATH, shall give a Wound.
To mention Names, might be improper,
Since Death on HIM, hath clapt a Stopper:
But still we grieve, he e'er was born,
His Country's Foe, and good Men's Scorn.
That he may rot, past sottly by,
Else he may raise his Head, and cry,
"PREROGATIVE was my whole Aim,
"Whilst I had Spirits to declaim.——
"Could I but sally forth anew,
"With Life of Scraps, patch'd up with Glue;
"That is the Theme I would insist on,
"Shou'd I be feather'd, tarr'd, or piss'd on."

November 16, 1772. WILLIAM LEE.

CHARLES-TOWN, NOVEMBER 19.

YESTERDAY Se'nnight, the Lady that arrived here in July last, by Land, from North-Carolina, and was then the Subject of much curious Enquiry, embarked in the Scooner Sally, Captain Thomas Tucker, for George-Town; from whence, we hear, though ſtill UNKNOWN, ſhe has ſet out, by Land, on her Return to the Northern Colonies.

Laſt Friday John Raven Bedon, Eſq; arrived here from New-Providence, purpoſing to reſide again in his native Country.

On Saturday laſt, a great Number of Paſſengers arrived here, in the Brigantine Friendſhip, Capt. Blewer, from Philadelphia; among them, Mr. Daniel Bourdeaux, of this Town, Merchant, Mrs. Poyas and Son, Richard Bohun Baker, Eſq; Mrs. Trapier, Miſs Wragg, and Miſs Rothmahler, of George-Town, Maſter Joſeph Waring, Maſter Charles Elliott, Son of Charles Elliott, Eſq; Mr. Peter Marion, all of this Province, and Mr. Archibald Gamboll, an eminent Tutor, from the New-Jerſey College—Alſo, upwards of Twenty Negroes.

By Captain Blewer, we have an Account of the Marriage of Daniel Huger, Eſq; to Miſs Sabina Elliott, Daughter of the late William Elliott, ſen. Eſq; (both of this Province) at Philadelphia, on the firſt Inſtant.

Laſt Sunday Morning died, much regretted, that Ornament to her Sex, as a Chriſtian, Wife, Mother, Friend, Miſtreſs, &c. Mrs. Anne Motte, (eldeſt Daughter of the late Hon. Benjamin Smith) the Wife of Iſaac Motte, Eſq;

The ſame Day put in here, His Majeſty's Sloop Cruizer, commanded by Capt. Howe, in ten Weeks from England; ſaid to be ſent out Expreſs, with Diſpatches to Admiral Montagu, at Boſton.

Dempſey Griffin, who was convicted at the laſt Court of Seſſions for this Precinct, of ſtealing a Negro, the Property of Mr. Briſbane, and ſentenced to be hanged on Tueſday laſt, was that Day reprieved for fourteen Days.

Joſeph Kerſhaw, Eſq; is appointed Sheriff for the Precinct of Camden, in the Room of R. P. H. Hatley, Eſq, lately deceaſed.

It is ſaid, that, if the Eſtabliſhment of a new Government on the Ohio ſhould take Place, Col. George Mercer, of Virginia, will be appointed Lieutenant Governor thereof.

The 1ſt and 2d Battalions of His Majeſty's 60th or Royal American Regiment, are gone from New-York, for their Deſtinations at Antigua and Jamaica.

Part of the Troops deſtined to ſubdue the Black Carraibs at St. Vincent's, are arrived there—And Governor Leybourne is not dead, as was ſome Time ſince reported.

By the Death of his Excellency William Spry, of Barbados, the Government of that Iſland has devolved upon the Hon. Samuel Rous, Preſident of the Council.

Writs are iſſued for electing a new Houſe of Repreſentatives, for the Province of Georgia, which are dated the 26th paſt, and made returnable the 9th of December, at Savannah, the Metropolis (not at Auguſta) in the ſaid Province.

The General Aſſembly of North Carolina, are prorogued to the 6th of January next, then to meet and ſit for the Diſpatch of Buſineſs, at Newbern, the Metropolis of that Province.

If the PEST-HOUSE on Sullivant's Iſland was made tight, warm, comfortable, and as convenient as poſſible, as well for the Recovery, as the Reception, of ſuch diſtempered Perſons, as, by Law, are required to be ſecluded from this Community, and lodged there, to prevent the ſpreading of contagious Diſtempers amongſt us—and if ſome proper Perſon was appointed conſtantly to reſide on the Iſland, to take Care of the Houſe—who would ſay, we wanted common Humanity?—If theſe Things are not done, who will not ſay we do?

Price of NEW RICE 60s. the Hundred Pounds Weight.—Indian Corn 20s. a Buſhel.—Of Indico, not yet fixed, though ſome has been ſold at 30s. a Pound.

* * * Several Favours from our Correſpondents have been received—the Publication of which muſt be deferred, on Account of the great Number of ADVERTISEMENTS, notwithſtanding which, ſeveral new Ones are now omitted.

SUPPLEMENT to the South-Carolina GAZETTE.

[NUMB. 1925.] THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1772.

CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by T. POWELL & Co. at the Printing-Office near the EXCHANGE.

The QUEEN of DENMARK's account of the late REVOLUTION in DENMARK; written while her Majesty was a prisoner in the Castle of Croenburgh; and now first published from the original manuscript, sent to a noble Earl.

THE design of this pamphlet is to exculpate the unhappy Queen from the charges, brought against her at the time of the revolution in Denmark; the principal of which (according to this account) were, 1. The plotting against the king her husband, in order to dispossess him of the crown, in concert with the Counts Brandt and Struensee. 2. Infidelity to the King.

The reasonings against the probability of the truth of these accusations, adduced by the writer of this account, are as follow:

"I shall now proceed to offer some reasons for the improbability of my being guilty of the crimes laid to my charge. To begin then with the charge of my being concerned in a conspiracy to depose the King; to have engaged in a scheme of this kind, would have been giving a proof of as much weakness as of wickedness. For, even supposing that such a design had been effected, the consequences of it must have been, in the highest degree, disadvantageous to me; as the Danes would certainly never have submitted to be governed by me (a foreigner) in either of the capacities of Queen or Regent; and in that case, either the deposed King would have been again put in possession of the throne, or the succession would have been entirely altered, by the advancement of Prince Frederick to the crown. Thus, which ever event was to happen, my ruin would be certain; but, granting that the enterprize had succeeded, and that I had been permitted to ascend the throne, I could not have expected to maintain an undisturbed possession of my seat; as the Queen Dowager would naturally, under the pretence of reinstating the deposed King, have sought the assistance of foreign powers to dispossess me of my assumed authority. France, whose interest at this court is, through the power of that party, very considerable, would gladly have lent her aid on this occasion; whilst England must, in justice, have withheld all assistance from the usurper, though so closely allied to her: Add to this, the strong opposition I should have met with from a considerable party among the natives themselves, who are closely connected with the Queen Dowager, and Prince Frederick. Thus surrounded with difficulties, I should have been soon worsted in the unequal contest; and, in consequence, precipitated from my airy heighth, with the loss of power, liberty, and (most probably) life. But supposing that I could be blind in some respects to the dangers and difficulties, attending such an enterprize, on what side was I to look for assistance in the execution of it? The army have proved, by the part they took in the late revolution, that all application to them would have been ineffectual; the greatest part of the nobility were in the interest of the Queen Dowager; the common people were too much prejudiced against me, by the false and malicious insinuations thrown out by my enemies, for me to expect the least assistance from that quarter; the joy they expressed, when my reverse of fortune was made known, plainly shews in what estimation I was held by them. Never yet was a national revolution effected (even attempted) in which there was not at least a considerable part either of the army or commonalty engaged; but I am charged with having conceived the design of bringing about such a revolution, at a time when, it is apparent, the far greater part of the nobility, and the whole of the army and commonalty, were in league against me. Thus surrounded with enemies, as powerful as they were numerous, to whom could I look for protection from their machinations, save to the King, my husband? And can it possibly be imagined, that I should be so far infatuated, as to seek to deprive me of that power, which alone could be my defence against any designs they might form to my prejudice? Surely the absurdity of this charge can be equalled only by the maliciousness of it.

"The next accusation is of a still deeper dye than the foregoing one. It was necessary to assign some motive of apparent weight for my embarking in an enterprize, so replete with dangers and difficulties: My whole conduct, while at the court of Copenhagen, proves, that the thirst of power (though a frailty natural to my sex) was the foible which, of all others, I was most exempt from: I never attempted to raise a faction in my favour, even when I could not but perceive, that there was a strong party formed against me: But, placing the utmost confidence in my own innocence, and the favour of the King, my husband, I heard, without apprehension, the rumours of the secret cabals, in which they had been for some time engaged. My foes were therefore obliged to fix on some other motive, than merely that of a wish to encrease my power, for my attempting to dethrone the King; and accordingly suggested, that I had engaged in a criminal intercourse with Count Struensee; consequently, that it had become necessary, to the safety both of the Count and myself, to deprive the King of that power, which we were certain would be exercised with the utmost severity over us, in case the criminality of our conduct should at any time come to light. They hinted, that (as a strong presumption of my guilt) a resemblance of the said Count, might be plainly traced in the features of the infant, my daughter. They grounded this accusation upon a (pretended) familiarity between me and the Count, which (said they) was totally inconsistent with that dignity, which I ought to have maintained in all my behaviour, as consort of the King. It is averred, that the unhappy Count confessed himself to have been guilty of such criminal connection with me, in the course of his examination before the court of enquiry. I scarcely can conceive it possible, that the Count could thus cast a stain upon my reputation, and his own honour, by an accusation so totally devoid of truth. But even admitting that he did make this confession, as it was avowedly forced from him by the tortures of the rack, such evidence alone, without any corroborating circumstances, ought not to have been admitted as cause sufficient for my conviction. But my judges were predetermined to condemn me, though it should be at the expence of the law, justice, and reason. This proceeding surprizes me the less, when I consider the influence under which they acted; for I am fully convinced, that the nomination of the members of the above court, and also certain regulations, according to which they were to proceed, were made by the self-same authority with that, by which the King was compelled to sign the order for my arrest. It is observable, that there is not the least suggestion thrown out against the legitimacy of the Prince, my son. A pretended too great familiarity between the Count and me was the foundation, on which my enemies grounded the charge against me; and this familiarity, they alledged, was known to the whole court. If this had really been the case, whence happens it, that the King should be so long ignorant of such a material circumstance? It is plain he was an entire stranger to it, at the very time of my arrest, otherwise he would never have hesitated to sign the order for that purpose. And besides, it must have been a proof of the highest degree of infatuation in me, to have behaved with such want of circumspection in a court, where I well knew, that a great part of the persons who appeared before me, were in the capacity of spies upon my actions."

Mr. POWELL,

IN July last I gave Notice in your Gazette, that it would not suit me to GARBEL or SEAL INDICO for Exportation, but for the Gentlemen whose Names were then inserted, at Two Dollars per Hundred Weight—which Resolution I still persevere in; though I am afraid, I shall be under the disagreeable Necessity to tell them this Crop as I did the last, That neither the Quality or Price would induce me to expose a Character which had cost me near Forty Years Labour, attended with a great Expence, to establish on a good Footing; for an Error in Judgment in me, is certainly a Crime—when, in another, of less Experience, it would only be deemed an Oversight. However, when I find Indico brought to Market in a merchantable Condition, I will so far act the generous Part, to encourage the Gentlemen in my List to become considerable Purchasers, as not to take a Copper from the Planters for inspecting their Indico, provided any of the under-mentioned Gentlemen are the Purchasers:—If they are not, I shall charge Five Pounds Currency for every Hundred Weight, after it is tarred and weighed, with a Certificate of its Quality, and the proper Allowances for Damp and Mixtures:—Neither do I intend this Favour to them till the Middle of January—for if by that Time they can sell their Indico without my Certificate, they naturally will not apply to me. As to the Price each Quality may obtain, it is to me of little Importance.—My Business, as Inspector-General, when called upon, is to prevent Impositions either by the Seller or Purchaser.—Had some Shippers of Indico last Crop, taken the same Precaution, and not have trusted so much to their own Judgment, it would all have been sold in England by the Letters of the 7th of September; whereas near Two-Thirds remained without Purchasers—and when the October Packet arrives, the Purchasers here of this Crop, will be able to judge what Price they can afford for prime Indico, and in Proportion for inferior.

MOSES LINDO,
Inspector-General of Indico.

TWO DOLLARS Reward.

DROPPED in Charles-Town, out of a Gentleman's Sleeve, a GOLD BUTTON, enamelled, blue and white.—Whoever finds it, and will leave it at Mr. TIDYMAN's Shop, in BROAD-STREET, shall receive TWO DOLLARS Reward. If such a Button, is offered for Sale, pray stop it, and deliver it as above.

Charles-Town, July 14, 1772.

THE Subscriber is much obliged to his planting Friends, who, by landing their Crops at his Wharf for three Years past, have thereby introduced it to Business.—He acted as Factor during that Time, purely to prevent his Friends being Sufferers by their intended Kindness to him, as it was very industriously insinuated, that Rice would not sell at his Wharf: But as he is now well convinced, and flatters himself all his Friends are fully so too, that their Crops, landed in large or small Parcels, will sell altogether as well at his Wharf, as at any other in Charles-Town; and that any Gentlemen, principally concerned in the Factorage Way, will now have no Objection to receive and sell Rice or Indico landed thereat: He therefore chooses to decline that Business, finding it more than he is able to go through. He hopes his good Friends will still land their Crops at his Wharf, where they may depend he shall take Care HIMSELF that their Boats have all possible Dispatch.

As to the Safety and Conveniency of his Docks and Stores, he is sure there are none preferable to them in Town in those Respects, and few (if any) Barns in the Country are cooler and more secure from Fire; and it is almost impossible for a Barrel of Rice to be stolen in landing or shipping at his Wharf. Such Gentlemen as use his Wharf constantly, may depend on never wanting Storage whenever they do not like the going Price:—No prudent Planter but must be convinced, that this is a Matter of the utmost Consequence to him, as many, for these three Years past, have had their Crops (when landed in Town) disposed of very much against their own Inclinations and Judgments, merely for Want of Storage; and this he is sure has been the Case, particularly this Year several Times, notwithstanding the Shortness of the Crop.

Messrs. GIBBES & HORT,

Who have had long Experience in the FACTORAGE BUSINESS in all its Branches, and confine themselves to that only, have taken the Charge of his Scales, and will transact their Business on his Wharf.—To these Gentlemen he begs Leave to recommend such of his Friends who are not otherwise engaged.

Christopher Gadsden.

N. B. Any Gentlemen in Trade may depend on not wanting STORAGE for such Parcels of Rice as they purchase at his Wharf.

GIBBES & HORT,

ACQUAINT THEIR FRIENDS,
THAT THEY CONTINUE THE
Factorage Business in all its Branches,
(ON THE USUAL TERMS)

AND, for the Convenience of good Storage, will transact it on Captain GADSDEN's WHARF; where they desire such of their Friends, as it may be agreeable to, will order the Goods they intend to favour them with, being convinced, that they will sell as well there, as at any other Place in CHARLES-TOWN.——Constant Attendance will also be given at their other 'Compting-House on the BAY.

Their Friends will be supplied with proper Boats agreeable to their Orders: And they hope to merit a Continuance of their Favours, by a steady Attention to their Employers Interest, especially as they are determined to confine themselves to the Factorage Business only.—And they assure their Friends, that they are not in any Wise interested in Captain GADSDEN's Stores; so that whenever they shall think it necessary to store for a better Market, it must be SOLELY with a View to their Friends Interest.

N. B. WANTED, to attend on the said Wharf, a Person well qualified and recommended.

Charles-Town, Nov. 10, 1772.

THE MASTERS of such VESSELS as come in Ballast, and land it at my WHARF this Crop, may have their WATER for filling, and no Wharfage charged for such Vessels, if they load thereat.

Christopher Gadsden.

N. B. The Water is known to be exceeding good.
